

ILPA ANNOUNCES 2022-2023 BOARD OF DIRECTORS

BDC's Alison Nankivell to Serve Second Term as Chair

June 8, 2022 (Washington, D.C.) Today during the Institutional Limited Partners Association's (ILPA) Annual General Meeting, members unanimously approved its Board of Directors for 2022-2023.

Alison Nankivell, Senior Vice President of Fund Investments and Global Scaling at BDC Capital, will serve her second term as Board Chair. BDC Capital is the investment arm of BDC, the bank for Canadian entrepreneurs.

"I'm honored to lead the Board during this milestone year for ILPA—our 20th Anniversary," said newly re-elected ILPA Board Chair Alison Nankivell. "I look forward to contributing to the organization's track record of delivering impact for ILPA's members by supporting the LP community in achieving their goals and promoting the long-term trajectory of our industry."

Teia Merring, Senior Investment Director at USS Investment Management Limited, will serve alongside Nankivell as new Board Vice Chair; Merring joined the Board in 2020.

New additions to the Board include Sarah Farrell, Allstate Investments, LLC; Adrian Ohmer, Kresge Foundation; and Swee Hong Yap, Freemont Capital. In addition to Merring, Re-standing Directors elected were George Long, VESTCOR and Margot Wirth, California State Teachers' Retirement System.

"Over the last year, the Board has helped expand ILPA's influence in the industry globally," said Steve Nelson, ILPA CEO. "We're grateful to our outgoing Board Members, EBRD's Anne Fossemalle and UAW Retiree Medical Benefits Trust's Brian Gimotty for their contributions and welcome the innovative and industry-leading members of this year's Board."

The complete list of ILPA Board Directors, including Officers, is available on the ILPA website.
