

Jennifer Choi Named ILPA Chief Executive Officer

December 5, 2022 (Washington, D.C.) The Institutional Limited Partners Association (ILPA) Board of Directors today named Jennifer Choi as the organization's Chief Executive Officer (CEO).

"It has been a true privilege to work alongside our dedicated members and the talented ILPA team, and I'm honored by the Board's faith in me to lead this organization forward into the future," said Jennifer Choi, ILPA CEO. "At a time when our industry has never been more global, or more complex, I'm excited by the opportunity to harness the full power of our amazing ILPA community to meet our members' evolving needs and ensure a thriving private markets ecosystem."

"Jen is a long-tenured ILPA leader who will bring a wealth of industry expertise and experience to the role, and we could not be happier to have her taking the helm of ILPA," said Alison Nankivell, ILPA Board of Directors Chair and BDC Capital Senior Vice President of Fund Investments. "As we close out the 20th Anniversary year at ILPA, we're eager to begin this next chapter with her innovative leadership and insight into how to bring the most value to LPs and strengthen the industry."

Choi has served as ILPA's Acting CEO since June 2022. Under her leadership this year, ILPA delivered several flagship events, including the highly regarded ILPA Summit in New York, continued its in-depth engagement with the SEC on the proposed Private Fund Advisers rule, expanded the Diversity in Action initiative and ILPA's ESG efforts, and is gearing up to deliver its most global ILPA Institute executive education calendar to date, among many other priorities.

Before being tapped as ILPA's Acting CEO, Choi served for eight years as Managing Director of Industry Affairs. During that time, she launched ILPA's policy advocacy platform and stewarded initiatives such as the ILPA Reporting Template, the ILPA Principles and the Diversity in Action initiative.

Prior to ILPA, Jen served as Vice President of Industry and External Affairs for the Emerging Markets Private Equity Association (EMPEA), now known as the Global Private Capital Association (GPCA), where she led the association's member and industry engagement activities, working to grow and strengthen the asset class.

Choi is an alumna of Tufts University and Augustana College.
