

Legal Documents

INTENSIVE COURSE

The Legal Documents course is designed for the limited partner looking for an in-depth understanding of material legal documents. Participants will learn about the complex created by legal documents, key economic considerations and other critical aspects that relate to the investment process of a legal function.

This live, faculty-led program combines lecture-based learning with interactive networking and group work elements, featuring custom case studies designed uniquely for LPs by LPs.

Key Learning Objectives

- Learn about the private equity landscape from a legal perspective and how to differentiate core legal documents and typical legal structures
- Apply an in-depth understanding of the economic and non-economic terms in limited partnership agreements
- Identify issues that may arise in associated material agreements and use reasonableness checks, side letters and legal opinions to address them
- Analyze general partner and advisory/management agreements to understand impact on the limited partner economics
- Learn how to engage in GP negotiations with an in-class exercise to apply key course takeaways in real-time

Who Should Attend?

This program is part of the ILPA Institute's Intensive series of courses, which means this program is designed for the limited partner with more than three years of experience in private equity or has completed the comprehensive private equity training and those in legal roles.

ILPA Members May Take This Course in the Following Formats:

All classes (other than asynchronous) are delivered live, either in-person on location, or virtually via the Zoom platform, by ILPA's leading practitioner faculty. Groups of up to 35 participants from multiple LP organizations or a single LP organization engage in active lecture, discussion and peer-to-peer learning (including use of a custom-designed case study). Enhancements are made to the virtual experience to ensure the same level of peer-to-peer connections are made as in the live, classroom experience.

Live With Participants From Multiple LP Organizations

Live or Virtually With Participants From a Single LP Organization

Have questions about the different formats and finding the right fit for your schedule this upcoming calendar year?

Reach out to ILPA Education at education@ilpa.org

Typical Lifecycle of ILPA Institute Courses

