- Acquire the tools and knowledge to find and evaluate the best managers and learn to screen for alignment to your vision of success
- Learn the standard legal frameworks of private equity and key terms to guide the understanding of negotiations
- Assess best practices for conducting due diligence and learn to evaluate opportunity and risk of potential partnership
- Understand benchmarking and monitoring to determine performance over time and industry standards
- Assess reporting and transparency standards to interpret financial reports that come from managers

Who Should Attend?

This program is part of the ILPA Institute's Comprehensive series of courses, which means this program is designed for the limited partner with less than three years of experience in private equity.

ILPA Members May Take This Course in the Following Formats:

All classes (other than asynchronous) are delivered live, either in-person on location, or virtually via the Zoom platform, by ILPA's leading practitioner faculty. Groups of up to 35 participants from multiple LP organizations or a single LP organization engage in active lecture, discussion and peer-to-peer learning (including use of a custom-designed case study). Enhancements are made to the virtual experience to ensure the same level of peer-to-peer connections are made as in the live, classroom experience.

Live or Virtually With Participants From Multiple LP Organizations

Live or Virtually With Participants From a Single LP Organization
